

HOLLYFIELD PRIMARY SCHOOL

25 October 2018

NEWSLETTER

This term we were delighted to hear that Hollyfield gained the highest level of an award for Primary Science. This process took school 18 months of hard work to prepare evidence for and then be assessed. The assessor was particularly pleased with the way we listen to the children's ideas and act on their suggestions and that Hollyfield supports other Primary schools to develop their own science provision. Science will continue to develop this year, with new Science Ambassadors meeting after half term, high quality training delivered to staff from our partnership with the Ogden Trust and opportunities being planned for children to share their enthusiasm for science at home.

Hope you enjoy your 'extra hour' of sleep
