

OLLYFIELD PRIMARY SCHOOL 6 December 2019

N S What wonderful performances we were treated to on Thursday from our fantastic Reception Children. They were all absolutely amazing and the singing was outstanding. We now look forward to KS1 and KS2's performances next week. Also still to look forward to is our Christmas Fayre next Friday 13 December at 3.30 pm. Preparations are well under way and Santa will also be making an appearance (please see Alex Madden from the PA if you haven't already booked your slot). We also have our Christmas parties on Monday 16 December during school time and finally Christingle over at St Chad's Church on Friday 20 December.

Children return to school

Tuesday 7 January 2020

Unfortunately there is no karate after school on Monday 16 December Sorry for any inconvenience.

Please remember that school will be closed to pupils on Thursday 12 December for voting.

The choir really enjoyed singing to the Residents at Owen Court on Wednesday afternoon. They really got everyone into the Christmas spirit. Thank you to the children for putting on such a terrific show and such fantastic singing.

The staff are embracing a new online PSHE resource. The children are really enjoying the new lessons. These are interesting and engaging to the children covering relevant issues such as money, sharing ideas and how our emotions impact on our behaviour.

Well done to all our Reception children in their Christmas Nativity this week. The children were absolutely fantastic with their singing, acting and dancing and spoke their words loud and clear. An absolute joy to watch!
